

Emunah & Tefillah Audition Script

Part 1

As Josh opens the letter:

RABBI SIDDUR

She must of have thought that you would see it when you did your homework last night, but since you didn't do your homework and I thought it might be important --

JOSH

Hey! This is from Achla Yeled! It's the game show that I auditioned for.

RABBI SIDDUR

I can see that I was mistaken about it being important.

JOSH

(reads, wide eyed) I can't believe it. I made second round!

RABBI SIDDUR

Josh did you forget that you are in the middle of davening?

JOSH

Siddur, I'm trying to concentrate... (pulls out a form) I've got to fill this out. And it's got a list of prizes to choose from, and a black space if I want to add my own request!

RABBI SIDDUR

Josh. Josh.

Rabbi Siddur pulls the letter out of his hand.

JOSH

Hey!

Part 2

RABBI SIDDUR

What happened to your arm?

Josh has a ACE bandage wrapped around his arm.

JOSH

I sprained it. (embarrassed) I let the bully ride my bike and I sat on the handlebars. (Pause) I know, it was stupid.

RABBI SIDDUR

Sorry to hear that. We all do stupid things. Except for siddurs of course. (Boasting) We are filled with wisdom and light.

Josh glares at Rabbi Siddur.

RABBI SIDDUR

Lighten up Josh, at least you didn't break anything.

JOSH

(coldly) I broke my phone. (shows him a cracked screen) It came out of my pocket when I fell. (Frustrated) If G-d loves us and is good, then why do bad things happen? He can stop bad things from happening. So why doesn't He?

RABBI SIDDUR

I want to show you something Josh
